ABOUT ME

I am Ian Mark J. Buenaflo, a third-year Bachelor of Science in Information Technology student at CPC. I am currently deeply immersed in developing my knowledge and skills in the field of web application development. I am committed to gaining practical experience, improving my technical competencies, and expanding my understanding of modern web technologies. As I continue my academic journey, I aim to contribute to meaningful projects and further refine my abilities as a future IT professional. As I progress in my studies, I remain eager to embrace new challenges, collaborate with others, and continue learning from both academic and real-world experiences.
